tion six miles East of Columbus, a negro boy named William about 19 years of age, five feet 4 inches high, black complexion.
Said boy was taken up by Thomas Walton, and says he was free and that his parents live near Shawanotown Illinois, and that he was taken from that place in July 1836 by a man named Bailett who told him Vicksburg, but he would not tell the gratuitous name that purchased him. Also says his father's name is William, and his mother's Sally Brown, and that they moved from Fredericksburg Virginia. I will give twenty dollars to any person who will deliver said boy to me or Col. Byrn Columbus.

Prospectus of a New Literary Journal,
Entitled
THE BACHELOR'S BUTTON.

THE SECOND NUMBER of this Periodical is now before the public. The very kind favor with which it has been accepted, prompts the Editor to make renewed exertions to place the work on a firm foundation, and to make it worthy the patronage it is likely to receive. No effort was made to obtain subscribers, no publicity given to design, until the first number was ready for distribution, because the Editor was unwilling to make promises which he might be unable to fulfil; and he was anxious that the public, before it gave encouragement or approbation, should see the work and have an opportunity to judge of its merits.
A short notice of the Editor's intentions and wishes accompanied the first number, and the approbation and indulgence with which his friends and the public generally received it, gave him hopes which he had not previously indulged.

That Alabama would give a handsome support to such a publication was a matter of extreme doubt; owing more to the commercial and agricultural enterprise, than to any want of liberality, or to the absence of a spirit for literary advancement. But the avidity with which fortune has been hunted down, has not taken away the TASTE of her Scholars; and the pursuit of wealth has produced the best of all results; the opening of the heart, and the gushing forth of those best feelings; GENIUS, and a desire to promote every laudable enterprise.

THE BACHELOR'S BUTTON is the only periodical in the State devoted entirely to original Literature. It is printed in handsome style—(not inferior in that respect to the best in the country.) The very medium of publication is calculated to inspire young ambition to vigorous exertion, and to make the old and experienced writer happy in the privilege of sending thoughts into the world in such a garb. Alabama has talent—talent of an order calculated to command the admiration of her neighbors, however old their experience, however celebrated their LITERATI. It is the proudest wish of the Editor that he may call that talent into active exercise; yet he cannot hope to able to do that without the hearty approbation of his friends, and the earnest concurrence in promoting a cause for whose success he is willing to devote his entire time and attention.

TERMS.—"The Bachelor's Button" will be published Monthly in the City of Mobile
